NextGen Development Services
An Idea is a Beautiful Thing...

NextGen Template and Document Development:

An idea comes to life where innovation, process, and skill meets clinical efficiency, workflow, and integration.

Our technical team has decades of working in the clinical setting, fully integrated into clinical workflow prior to gaining wicked smart development skills. Template Editor, Document Builder SQL, Stored Procedures, Crystal, Graphical Tools, etc. are no problem.

Our biggest and most important job is working with you, making your ideas come to life and making your clinic work more intuitive, effective and meaningful.

We work with you on a project-by-project basis or as an augment of your team ongoing.

Have an idea you want to bring to life? Please call 877-874-6475 x101 or email crichardson@mist-corp.com. We look forward to it!
